Well I aint got the cash for L4D at the min due to my drinking over xmas but there are some new zombie maps out although I havn't played them yet.

It would be good just to have some one on I know I havn't been on much lately.

Bobby's been on quite a bit lately although he's never on ts.

You guy's missed out on my 5 vs 1 heroics the other night where it took 5 people vs me almost a full 15 minutes to beat me at WAR on Asylum for some reason Auto balance never kicked in. I think I had some help for the last min or so.
