Had a couple of goes on COD5 over the last few days and there's nothing else to describe it I'm shocking, I think i've adjusted to L4D too much and at the moment cant hit a barn door when it comes to using a rifle and it's actually wetted my appetite for playing COD5 specially with the map pack that is due soon perhaps even next week.

Yeah I saw Bobby was back, it would be nice to see some of the other back on as well, so come on Andy, Phil and Eros come back.

I won't be on tonight I am going to Newcastle to get drunk and make some bad decisions. :P
