
Nino\'s goodbye

Posted by El_Nino - 2009/06/16 22:01

Well lads how do I say this El-Nino is moving to Switzerland very very very soon I shall stay in touch with the clan I will have a laptop with me so may be able to play CS with you unless I'm not allowed to install stuff on it.

I will be in Geneva from thurs to sat then home till I find a place over there then I'm off, fucking credit crunch forcing a kid abroad.

I will try to get on tomorrow night to say goodbye to the clan.

Au revoir :(

Is that the only place you could get a job ? Cisco takes you all over the world then !

Will be sad without your Dulcet tones, and claymores, betties, getting sprayed & prayed, camping :huh:

Anyways good luck to ya :beer:

Cheers mate, I get a laptop when I get out there so I will be able to stay in touch and depending on how much machines are over there may buy one or build one if I can get the parts, I'll need someone to talk to because I cant speak french at all. :unsure:

Like I said I shall be on at some point tomorrow night then again on Sunday I hope, the crazy thing is I dont have a place to live yet I start at some point next week

Au revoir :(

Do they not have broad band in the EU

Get a PC sorted and carry on camping :P

Just maybe your ping will be higher than mine :laugh:

Hope you will still post and how long are you going for ?

Good luck Dazboy

It's a permanent job so for good, but I'm going to see how it goes for the first 6 months or so if I like it I will stay if not I will come home, yes they do have broadband over there some of the fastest in the world and all the flats ive looked at so far have it just need a PC hopefully in time for modern warefare 2.

You never know things may change I had an interview on monday for a job in newcastle if I get that I will stay but I won't find out until monday.

I've told them I won't move out there until I have a place to live so I may get on some time before I go.

I'm gonna miss you guy's I've really enjoyed being part of this clan.

i think you'll be fine not being able to speak french.... my main concern is how ur new colleagues can understand the geordie dialect!!!!

cracking opportunity for u mate and like u say, if all goes well get yourslef a new PC sorted and you'll be back on..... and -Froggy_SwissBoy is born...:woohoo:

so all the best young kevin and even if you dont get a PC.... download Teamspeak on ur laptop and listen to us playing.....P :beer: :typing:

Wishing you all the best with your new job Nino.

As for gaming.....why the f%&k don't you strip out all the bits from your current rig and take 'em with you. You only need a case and sreen then.

It's normal for clans to go very quite this time of year. Too much other stuff to do. But i'm sure you will be back on in time for MW2.
