Posted by ORCA - 2010/07/28 19:02

But I didnt notice !

I got this email the other day and thought it was spam so i didnt pay any attention so reading it today and I think it is for real, I havent signed into Steam yet to check, but I will try and log in later...

Here is the email anyway:

Hello,

Recently, your Steam account was erroneously banned from Call of Duty: Modern Warfare 2.

This was our mistake, and I apologize for any frustration or angst it may have caused you.

The problem was that Steam would fail a signature check between the disk version of a DLL and a latent memory version. This was caused by a combination of conditions occurring while Steam was updating the disk image of a game. This wasn't a game-specific mistake. Steam allows us to manage and reverse these erroneous bans (about 12,000 erroneous bans over two weeks).

We have reversed the ban, restoring your access to the game. In addition, we have given you a free copy of Left 4 Dead 2 to give as a gift on Steam, plus a free copy for yourself if you didn't already own the game.

To share your extra copy of Left 4 Dead 2 with a friend, you can 'Manage Gifts and Guest Passes' from the 'Games' Menu in Steam, or visit this article on the Steam Support site for detailed instructions:

https://support.steampowered.com/kb_article.php?ref=4502-TPJL-2656 .

To access your own copy of Left 4 Dead 2, visit your library of games in Steam. If you didn't already own the game, it will now be listed among your others there, and is available for download immediately.

Regards,
Gabe Newell
President, Valve

So if it is true, I might have a L4D:2 Gift for someone ???

I WANT TO BE BANNED FROM MWPOOH.....BAN ME YOU F&%KERS!!!!

On a side note, they have made some changes to CS:S. Added achievements, tweaked graphics (higher rez texture option, blur, etc). I think the download was around 700Meg!! It's worth a look. It also confirms that they have no intention of developing CS 3 any time soon shameas it's probably the only franchise left that could give MW a well deserved kick up the arse.

Yeah they banned around 70,000 people by accident I'm wondering how many hackers accounts theyve unblocked.

The game itself is shocking at the moment if you play the expansion packs its 3 4 5 even 6 hackers per game and the all say the same thing "Other people are hacking too" Cocks, even in normal games the probability you will get a hacker in your game is 3-1 at best. Most people have settled for wall hacks rather than aimbots but Im just sick of it.

Not sure what to do about black ops but yet again MoH is out soon.

Just put my PS3 online you guys will have to let me know what games you have.
