Yeah we enjoy your roof top antics too ;)

Are you fine with paying the £11 for the remainder of the year contract for your slot on the server ?

If so make a Paypal donation (or credit card) or reply back if you want to pay via other means.

Then we can make you a member and add you to the Members List and arrange the other permissions too...
TeamSpeak, Website, Forums

Ok I have paid the donation.

could you let me know what's next?

I was concerned about you all alone on that roof unsupervised I was afraid you might fall and hurt yourself.:laugh:

Upgraded your website account so you should be able to see the Clan Only part now.

We will allow you to become a registered member on the Team Speak, but we can only do that when you are on.

Which is your proper email account ? with the 1 or without, then i can amend and delete your other account you created.

Welcome to the Clan :woohoo: :P B)
