If we like you or you are a member we will allow you to register with the server.

You join as a normal user (u)

If we grant you access to join you get the following (circled)

--Allowed to register with server

Then go Self - Register with server (different in picture)

Then enter your name and a password (with confirmation)

Then log out, and change yourself to Registered and enter in your password you entered. And if everything goes ok, you will be registered :bravo:

If it doesnt work, put your self back as Unregistered to reconnect.

Any problems post here
