
Rules for Joining

Posted by ORCA - 2008/01/04 14:10

We dont except the following:

Racist Comments
Abuse against other team members (none banter)
Heavy Swearing (occasionally allowed)
Cheating
Stupid Noises or Music on TeamSpeak

Other things we are pretty laid back about.

Must be on Team Speak

Just post a New Thread and state why you would like to join, come on the server and play and if we like you, we will let you know what to do next.

The 3 Commanders have fully paid for 10 slots on the server for a whole year (Dec 07 - Dec 08). For future slots & rental we will ask you to pay for your own slot on the server which is (currently) £12 for a year (not much really), please add 57p for admin charges that paypal charge me.

What will you get in return, its what you make of it, we all have a say, so we could have themed nights (like AWE4 CTF), Modded Nights (Guns Only), internal Scrims, or even Scrims with other Clans etc.

This post will be locked so you cant reply, just create a new thread

Happy Shooting
Orca :woohoo:
